

In Case You Wondered

PHILOSOPHY is like being in a dark room and looking for a black cat.

METAPHYSICS is like being in a dark room and looking for a black cat that isn't there.

THEOLOGY is like being in a dark room and looking for a black cat that isn't there, and shouting, " I found it!"

SCIENCE is like being in a dark room and looking for a black cat that may or may not be there . . . using a flashlight.

References

- From the Internet